Week 1

Kia ora everyone,

Welcome back everyone!

Mary Zellman continued:

Thank you again to all the parents and caregivers who attended the Student Led conferences. 92% of families attended. Teachers will be in contact with families to ensure parents and caregivers learn about their child's progress and achievement. The parents will then receive the Learning Report.

I know some families are facing financial challenges. Please do not hesitate to contact me, I may be able to support you with help through St Vincent de Paul.

The school welcomes Mrs Paula Johansen, our New Entrant teacher, in Room 20.

Congratulations to all our basketball teams. The first Season at the YMCA was very successful. Three teams made the finals and the three teams won. They were St Paul's Spirit (U11), St Paul's Panthers (U7) and St Paul's Little Legends (U17).

The final total for the Spell-a-thon was $31,150.40. This is an incredible amount. We certainly passed the goal of $10,000. Well done.

The Prize winners were:

- 1st: Matilda Karnadi
- 2nd: Foheloa Funaki
- 3rd: Finn Crawford

The hot chips are being very well received by the children. It was a huge team effort.
