Week 02

Fakaalofa lahi atu ki a mutolu oti,

Welcome to Niuean Language Week. Thank you to Maleah, Anamaile, Pua, Rosi, Indi, Keilani, Ivy, Lillian, Michaela, Nylah, Ms Purdeu and Miss Backhouse-Smith for all your organisation.

What did you think of our Bandchestra and Choirs? I thought that they were incredible. I am very proud of you. You all worked really hard to produce a very high standard of performance. Thank you very much Mrs Isdale for all your hard work.

Last week, Year 3 (Kōtare) Team visited the Auckland Zoo. The educators who worked with the groups sang their praises. The students were so knowledgeable, respectful and engaged through the entire sessions and were a delight to work with. I was very proud to receive this email. Well done children and teachers and parents.

Friday 13 October

The school celebrated Play Day with extra long play-times and children learning and playing games during class time. Part of the New Zealand Curriculum is Key Competencies. There five competencies. The focus of the learning was on managing self, participating and contributing and relating to others. Many teachers played with the children and against the children. Some of our teachers are quite competitive. The children had a lot of fun.

No hat no play.

All children are required to wear the school hat when they are outside. The hat costs $15 and can be purchased at the Uniform Shop on Friday mornings 8.00am until 9.00am. Children who are not wearing a hat must play in the walkways under the shade.
