Week 01

Kia ora koutou e te whānau o Hāto Paora,

Welcome back everyone. I hope you all enjoyed the holiday break and rested ready for an exciting term of learning.

The focus for this term is on literacy, speaking, listening, writing, reading and presenting.

Each class will be presenting a play at the end of the term. This is very exciting. We have not done anything like this since 2015. The plays will be performed in the school hall in the last week of term.

Yesterday I sent out an email with a link to an attendance survey. There was a lot of absence last term and many children were late for school. I know that a large number of students were ill and many went away on holiday. But there may be other reasons for absence which create barriers to attendance at school that the school may be able to help and support families to overcome. For example if children forget their lunch or do not have lunch we always have food available.

However, if children miss a lot of school, this definitely has an impact on both their progress and achievement. This has certainly been the case this year. Please complete the survey. It is anonymous.

If you are experiencing financial hardship please contact me on 09 832 7200.

Welcome to Mr Dave Canovas, teaching our children in Room 14 and Miss Ting Ting Yao teaching Room 19 (Kererū).

Reading Nights: Friday 26 July-50 Reading Nights
Well done to all the students who are on track to get the Reading Medal at the end of the year. The older the student the more reading they should be doing. Over the last two months many books have been purchased for the library. There is something to read for everyone.

Ngā mihi nui kia koutou katoa,

Mary Zellman
(Principal)
