More success on the basketball court. Last night our Under 11 St Paul's Spirit team won the A grade. Congratulations to the team and the coach Miss Graham.

St Paul's Aces, St Paul's Panthers, St Paul's Little Legends will be playing in their finals later this week. Good luck.

Enjoy a well-earned rest everyone and see you back at school on Monday 20 July.

Week 11

Kia ora koutou e te whānau Hato Pāora,

It was an amazing week last week. Well, every week is great at St Paul's School but last week our A and B, Year 5 and 6 Basketball teams won the Henderson Cluster Basketball Competition. Thank you Miss Graham and Ms Brayne for coaching the teams.

The Disco was a lot of fun. Lots of glitter and stars and of course, dancing. Thank you to our parent volunteers of the PTFG.

We farewell Miss Backhouse-Smith this week. She is leaving St Paul's School and heading to sunny Spain to teach. We will miss you and wish her all the very best in the future.

Student Led Conferences

Please be on time for your appointment and bring your children. Pick up your children at 12.30pm. The teachers are not available to supervise children who are left at school.

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

We had a wonderful time celebrating the Feast of St Peter and St Paul at our school Mass on Monday morning.

The Mass was concelebrated by Fr William Matthew and Fr Tevita Nukuleve, making it a very special celebration for our school community. Our children were respectful and reverent throughout the Mass.

To finish the celebration, everyone enjoyed an ice block as a treat. Happy St Peter and Paul's Day!

Keep warm and stay safe these holidays.
